Course Title: Sociology of Bangladesh		Course Type: Allied	Exam Hours: 4

Course Description

Sociology of Bangladesh offers a comprehensive exploration of the structural foundations, cultural diversity, and dynamic transformations of Bangladeshi society. Designed to bridge academic theory with everyday reality, the course examines how ecological factors, colonial legacies, and the 1971 Liberation War have shaped the nation's social institutions. Students will critically analyze rural and urban class structures, changing family dynamics, economic shifts driven by the RMG sector and remittances, and the rich tapestry of ethnic coexistence. Through the lens of foundational sociological theories, the curriculum addresses contemporary challenges—including gender inequality, poverty, and climate change vulnerability—empowering students to collaborate effectively and relate sociological insights to national development and real-world issues.

Course Objectives

After successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Develop an understanding of the major features, concepts, and characteristics of Bangladeshi society, including its social, cultural, economic, and political conditions.
- Explain the historical development of Bangladesh society, including the impacts of ecological factors, colonial experiences, the Language Movement, and the Liberation War.
- Understand the structure and functions of major social institutions, including family, culture, education, economy, politics, and governance systems in Bangladesh.
- Analyze contemporary social issues of Bangladesh, including inequality, poverty, gender issues, migration, urbanization, and climate change vulnerability from a sociological perspective.
- Apply basic sociological concepts and theories to understand social problems and social transformation processes in Bangladeshi society.
- Develop awareness of cultural diversity, ethnic coexistence, and changing patterns of identity within Bangladesh.
- Relate sociological knowledge to everyday life, national development, and real-world social challenges.
- Develop collaborative learning skills through discussion, case studies, presentations, and analysis of social issues in Bangladesh.

Course Title: Viva-voce (Islamic Studies)			Paper Orientation: Practical

Course Description

The Viva-voce is a comprehensive oral examination designed to evaluate students' overall academic achievement, subject knowledge, communication skills, critical thinking ability, and professional competence acquired during the Islamic Studies program. Conducted after the completion of written examinations, this course provides students with an opportunity to demonstrate their understanding of the core areas of Islamic Studies, including the Qur'an, Hadith, Islamic history, Islamic civilization, Islamic law, ethics, society, and contemporary issues.

The examination also assesses students' ability to explain Islamic concepts clearly, apply Islamic teachings in practical contexts, analyze academic questions critically, and demonstrate ethical values, confidence, and readiness for higher studies and professional life.

Course Objectives

The objectives of the course are to:

- Evaluate students' knowledge of major areas of Islamic Studies through oral examination.
- Assess students' understanding of the Qur'an, Sunnah, Hadith, Islamic history, civilization, law, ethics, and Islamic thought.
- Develop students' communication skills, confidence, and ability to present Islamic concepts effectively.
- Evaluate students' analytical thinking and ability to relate Islamic teachings to contemporary social issues.
- Assess students' professional attitude, ethical values, and problem-solving ability.
- Prepare students for higher education, research, professional interviews, and career development related to Islamic Studies.

Teaching System

The course is conducted through an interactive and student-centered approach. Teaching and learning activities include orientation sessions, revision of core Islamic Studies topics, guided discussions, question-answer sessions, mock viva examinations, individual consultations, self-directed learning, and review of important concepts from previous courses.

Students are encouraged to develop effective communication skills, critical thinking ability, analytical skills, and confidence for successful performance in the viva-voce examination

Assessment Strategy

Students will be assessed through a comprehensive viva-voce examination conducted by the designated Examination Committee after completion of written examinations.

The assessment will evaluate students' understanding of Islamic Studies, ability to explain and apply Islamic knowledge, analytical and critical thinking skills, oral communication ability, professional attitude, confidence, and responsiveness to questions.

The final grade will be awarded based on the overall performance demonstrated during the viva-voce examination.
